TALK OF THE TOWN.

A small but appreciative audience attended the lecture by Franklin Pierce Jolly, given in the Universalist church last evening. As a humorist, lecturer and impersonator, Mr. Jolly is possessed of remarkable ability, and he kept his hearers in continuous laughter throughout the evening. The entertainment was worthy of a packed house. Mr. Jolly came here under the auspices of the Goddard Athletic association.

Bethune, Williamstown, Ont.; George Rowe, Montpelier; Patrick O'Connell, Northfield; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Osborn, Burlington; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar T. Sullivan, New York; Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Malone, New York.

ANOTHER COURT SCHEME.

Presented by Brazil at Hague Conference.

The Hague, Sept. 17.—Dr. Ruy Barbosa, head of the Brazilian delegation to the peace conference, announced yesterday that after further consideration of the plan of M. Bourgeois (France) for the allotment of the judges of the permanent arbitration tribunal he cannot support it. The Brazilian delegate had previously approved the plan, but he now finds that it does not sufficiently guarantee the equality of all the states. He therefore urges the acceptance of the Brazilian proposition, namely one judge for each country. Senor Esteva (Mexico) reserved the decision of Mexico on M. Bourgeois' proposal.

ACTIVITY AT FIFE'S YARD.

Believed He Is Preparing to Construct Shamrock IV.

Glasgow, Sept. 17.—William Fife's yacht building yard is showing increasing activity and the facilities are being extended. Indications which confidently accepted locally as forecasting the early beginning of the construction of Shamrock IV by the famous Clyde designer. A huge building shed, completely closed and capable of housing a yacht 150 feet long, has been erected in the yard and the furnace has been strengthened and enlarged, making it capable of casting a keel weighing 100 tons.

VERDICT FOR $15,000.00.

A Nova Scotia Coal Company Did Not Fill Contract With Iron Company.

Halifax, N. S., Sept. 17.—Justice Longley of the Supreme court of Nova Scotia last night delivered a decision in favor of the plaintiff in the action brought by the Dominion Iron and Steel company against the Nova Scotia Coal company for the recovery of $15,000.00 damages for breach of contract in not supplying coal suitable for metallurgical purposes. The defendant company will probably appeal to the full bench of the Supreme court of Nova Scotia, which meet on Nov. 19.
